

new SOLAS regulation II-2/20-1, which provides additional safety measures for vehicle carriers with vehicle and ro-ro spaces intended for carriage of motor vehicles with compressed hydrogen or compressed natural gas in ...

The IMO has introduced SOLAS Regulation II-1/3-13 through Resolution MSC.532 (107), setting new requirements for lifting appliances and anchor handling winches. These updates will take ...

On July 18, 2025, the Directorate General of Shipping (DGS) released Circular No. 31/2025 --a critical directive aimed at eliminating fake maritime certifications and strengthening the ...

The aim of analysing legal regulations in the context of this scientific research topic is to highlight the provisions currently in force that impose the obligation on the shipmaster to comply with ...

A Port State Control (PSC) inspection checklist is used by mariners to help ensure compliance with international regulations on the condition, operation, and manning of a vessel. Use this PSC inspection checklist that ...

The Rules and Regulations for the Classification of Special Service Craft apply to sea-going motor, sailing and auxiliary craft of normal form, proportions and speed, generally not exceeding a Rule length, LR of 150 m.

Access Lloyd's Register's rules and regulations for the classification of ships. Gain comprehensive insights into the standards and requirements for ship classification, including design, construction, and operational considerations.

This convention is recognized as one of the most vital international treaties concerning the safety of merchant ships. Its primary objective is to establish minimum safety standards in the ...

Fire drills shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of regulation III/30, having due regard to notification of passengers and movement of passengers to assembly stations and embarkation decks. Emergency training ...

A new SOLAS regulation, supported by IMO MSC.1/Circ.1663 guidelines, outlines stricter safety and certification requirements for lifting appliances used on ships. The amendments, effective ...

Engineering What are drills requirements for all vessels as per SOLAS? June 30, 2025 32,547 Views Drills:- Every crew member shall participate in at least one abandon ship drill and one fire drill every month.

Solas regulations and rules

Accommodation Ladders The following items should be thoroughly examined during annual surveys required by SOLAS regulations I/7 and I/8 and checked for satisfactory condition of the accommodation ladder: steps ...

Every crew member shall participate in at least one abandon ship drill and one fire drill every month. The drills of the crew shall take place within 24 h of the ship leaving a port if more than 25% of the crew have not participated ...

All regulatory aspects of vessels in the commercial maritime field are covered either through the regulations governed by the International Maritime Organization IMO, such as the SOLAS convention, for safety of life at sea or ...

Solas regulations and rules

Web: <https://www.ichipcorp.co.za>

