

Uganda's labour force characteristics highlight a number of pressing issues: Need for skills training: More vocational and technical training is required to match job seekers with labor ...

The Ugandan fresh fish fillet market totaled $188M in 2024, standing approx. at the previous year. Overall, consumption enjoyed resilient growth. Over the period under review, the market attained the maximum level at $189M in ...

As part of the implementation of the Buy Uganda Build Uganda policy, the government of Uganda through the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Cooperatives has organized a campaign to ...

As Francis Mwebesa, Uganda's Minister of Trade, Industry and Cooperatives noted, "This project is an enabler for the Government of Uganda to facilitate our private sector to seize more ...

From being a net importer of almost everything, Uganda has in the last three decades built local capacity to manufacture, especially household goods, to supply the local market, while ...

Uganda, Africa's leading Robusta coffee exporter, is currently grappling with a dip in farm gate coffee prices--a ripple effect from the global market that has left many local farmers anxious. ...

Web: <https://www.ichipcorp.co.za>

